Creation of

CONSORTIUM of THE INTERNATIONAL LIBRARY FORUM

The Consortium is a body gathering the Polish libraries governed by the established rules and procedures. It includes the network of interested academic institutions to share many projects.

The Consortium is established initially for 5 years.

The Consortium's purpose is to facilitate the promotion of the members' collections at the international book fairs and events.

The aim of the Consortium is a new production of existing materials with the individual copyrights status.

The Consortium's financial year runs from 1 October to 30 September.

Partners (or full members) can be libraries or other institutions structured as a single organisations.

The Members of the Consortium elect a Board of Directors which meets at least once a year. The regular monitoring of the Consortium's projects is delegated by the Executive Committee. The projects include production of films, DVDs, interdisciplinary content online and printed publications in translation.

The International Library Forum is the Associate Member of the Consortium.

The Associate Members do not have the right to vote at the Consortium's annual meetings.

The Consortium can expand to the international academic institutions for the period of production of new products like films but the ownership of the products stays with the Consortium.

The Consortium has a right to sell the shares in the new initiatives.

The Consortium's new initiatives represent the shares of 100% , The International Library Forum's amount of shares is 51% .
