ICCS PROGRAMS

Graduate Scholarships

The scholarship is aimed to facilitate the renewal of the community of Canadianists by supporting the work of young scholars, by enabling successful candidates to spend 4-6 weeks at a Canadian university or research site other than their own doing research related to their thesis or dissertation in the field of Canadian Studies.

More information on ICCS website:
<http://www.iccs-ciec.ca/graduate-student-scholarships.php>

All applications must be submitted to PACS by October 24th.

Canadian Studies Postdoctoral Fellowships

The fellowships are aimed to enable young Canadian and foreign academics who have completed a doctoral thesis on a topic primarily related to Canada and are not employed in a full-time, university teaching position to visit a Canadian or foreign university with a Canadian Studies program for a teaching or research fellowship.

All applications must be submitted to PACS by October 24th.

Pierre Savard Awards

The Pierre Savard Awards are designed to recognize and promote each year outstanding scholarly monographs on a Canadian topic. The awards form part of a strategy that is aimed at promoting, especially throughout the Canadian academic community, works that have been written by members of the Canadian Studies international network. The awards are intended to designate exceptional books, which, being based on a Canadian topic, contribute to a better understanding of Canada. There are two categories:

- 1) Book written in French or English;
- 2) Book written in a language other than French or English

All applications must be submitted to PACS by October 24th.

Best Doctoral Thesis in Canadian Studies

This ICCS Award is designed to recognize and promote each year an outstanding PhD thesis on a Canadian topic, written by a member (or one of his/her students) of a Canadian Studies Association or Associate Member, and which contributes to a better understanding of Canada.
