Articles which are to be published in Managerial Economics should be prepared according to the following guidelines.

Length of the paper should not exceed 22 typed pages (figures and tables included).

The running text of the body of the paper should be followed by figures and tables.

Title page should include a footnote, giving the author's affiliation.

Figures must be prepared in a form suitable for direct reproduction. Digital artwork at least 300 dpi resolution is accepted. Photographs, on glossy paper (9 by 13 cm or larger), should display sharp contrast. Figures, tables and photographs should be numbered according to their reference in text.

For computer edited texts, please include a disc with a text file, giving the editor programme used (preferably Word or WordPerfect). Illustrations should be edited in CorelDraw (.CDR), DrawPerfect (.WPG) or in any other vector graphics form e.g. HPGL, Encapsulated PostScript (*.EPS), Computer Graphics Metafile .CGM) or bitmaps (.TIF, *.PCX).

Mathematical equation within the text should be written in separate lines, numbered consecutively (numbers within round brackets) on the right-hand side. Greek characters must be written out clearly. Reference to literature within the text should be given in square brackets.

Papers should be submitted in two copies.

Summary (of 15–20 lines) and keywords should be submitted in both Polish and English on separate sheet containing the name of the author, title of the paper with the heading “Summary”.

Authors using Word are requested to employ, as far as possible, text form of mathematical symbols leaving graphic form for the equations longer than single line.

The author should use the numbering style of referencing. References to literature within the text should be given in square brackets. Lists of references should be written in alphabetical-chronological order.

Information about the journal and the deadlines for submitting articles for next issues as well as the template according to which the papers should be prepared are presented at
